

2015 TAC Goals

- The TAC moved to make the following subjects priority topics of discussion and analysis for 2015:
 - Citywide Safety Campaign to address neighborhood speeding concerns; (active)
 - Hospital Master Plan and how it will affect traffic patterns around the hospital and residential streets; (inactive)
 - TriMet Service Changes due to the new MAX light rail expansion; (finished)
 - Design Standards for Railroad Undercrossing on 12th-15th Streets; (inactive)
 - The development of the old mill site and the proposed Blue Heron Master Plan; (active)
 - Metro's Newell Creek Canyon Master Plan for development of approximately 300 acres into a public park; (active)
 - Retention of the old sewer plant north of McDonald's near Hwy 99 to help alleviate parking when the Blue Heron site is developed and local events such as the Teddy Bear Parade. (inactive)
- Remain involved in capital projects relating to transportation. (active)
- Openly listen to citizen requests regarding transportation concerns. (active and ongoing)

2016 TAC Goals

- The TAC moved to make the following subjects priority topics of discussion and analysis for 2016:
 - Drive Safe Oregon City Campaign to address neighborhood speeding concerns; (active)
 - The Cove Project and how it will affect traffic patterns due to the closure of Main Street; (active)
 - Willamette Falls Legacy Project; (active)
 - Beaver Creek Road Concept Project; (active)
 - Public Works Operations Center Plan; (active)
 - TriMet Enhancement/Transit Service; (active)
 - Alternate funding for transportation safety such as a gas tax. (active)
- Remain involved in capital projects relating to transportation. (active)
- Openly listen to citizen requests regarding transportation concerns. (active and ongoing)