

Behavior Rules Governing the Use of Oregon City Public Library

To achieve the Oregon City Public Library's mission of providing materials and services to all members of the community, the following Behavior Rules, enforced by library staff, are in place to protect your rights and safety as a library patron, but also to protect the rights and safety of staff members and other patrons. These rules also help preserve and protect library materials, facilities and property. Persons who violate the following rules may be ejected from the premises and excluded from the library.

The following conduct is prohibited on library property. Persons who violate rules 1-16 may be given one warning at the discretion of library staff or be asked to leave the premise for the day. Subsequent offenses may result in immediate exclusion from premises and loss of all library privileges based on the library's progressive behavior exclusion scale.

1. 7. Bringing in and consuming food or drink, except non-alcoholic beverages in closed or re-sealable containers.

Also, please be advised that the Children's Room and Teen Room were created to be utilized by particular age groups, ages 0-12 and 12-18 respectively, and their caretakers. While all ages are welcome to browse for materials in these areas, adults without children or teens should use other areas for seating. Adults seated in the children's room or teen area without the accompaniment of a child or teen will be asked to move.

Repeat Offenses

Individuals who repeatedly violate these Behavior Rules after having been previously excluded for library rule violations may face longer exclusions. Repeat offenders need not violate the same rule to be subject to stricter enforcement and may not be warned that their behavior is inappropriate before being excluded.

The following progression scale will be used to determine the length of exclusion; education/warning – 1 day – 1 week – 1 month – 6 months – 1 year – permanent.

Violation of rules 17-22 may will progress at a faster rate
