

Library Director's Report for April 2019

Staff:

- Three staff went full-time in April.
- We are having a goodbye party for Betty Armstrong on June 6; if you knew her, you are invited.
- We received 95 applications for the LA2 in Technical Services that is replacing her.
- We did an on-call recruitment at the same time and received 57 applications.

Relationships and partnerships:

- We sent three people to the OCBA luncheon in April which focused on workforce development in Oregon City.
- For our regular monthly staff meeting we hosted Mike Day, the Homeless Liaison with PD, and Chelsae from M-Seed.
- We sent four staff to an active shooter training
- We sent three staff to the Parrott Creek fundraiser. Several library staff attending the new bookstore ribbon cutting.

Programs:

- National Library Week was in April. We held Food for Fines and collected 845 pounds of food
- we held a wonderful poetry program with Kate Gray
- Karin Morey talked about the literary ladies of Oregon City
- we had many first-grade field trips

May is:

- May the Fourth be With You Month. I'll have stats at our meeting.
- Budget approval month; I'll know more at our meeting

In other news:

- I testified at the Capital in Salem about the new ORS definition of Public Library.