RE: OCCIT Grant Tourism Grant
Exit Report

Der Michele,

Enclosed is the Exit Report for the Holmes House Visitation- 2014 project. The original grant was for $1,389.00 and the request for reimbursement is for the full amount. I have enclosed some of the flyers for the events with our sponsors, schedule of activities and photos from on the events.

The McLoughlin Memorial Association appreciates the financial support this grant has given us. It is so important to keep the Holmes House open for visitation and the OCCIT support makes that possible.

With grateful appreciation,

Denyse C. McGriff, Grant manager

The William L. Holmes House

is one of the oldest and most historic American homes in Oregon.

William and Louisa Holmes were pioneers who joined the "Great Migration" in 1843. More than 900 souls traveled the trail west that year. The Holmes family settled on a 640-acre land claim at the south edge of Oregon City.

They lived in a log cabin with a view of Mount Hood, until their lovely home was completed in 1847. It was the scene of early government meetings and many social events. The first territorial governor, Joseph Lane, gave his 1849 inaugural address from the home's balcony, while the celebrants gathered on the lawn below.

The claim was nicknamed the "Rose Farm" by friends and neighbors because of the many roses Louisa planted in her garden.

The William L. Holmes House can accommodate groups of up to 20 people.
It is not wheelchair accessible.
