1. Brief project description:

The project components were: 1) created barbeque picnic areas including new picnic tables and a grill at Clackamas Heights and Oregon City View Manor Public Housing Developments; 2) installing a new neighborhood sign at Oregon City View Manor; 3) implementing fall community harvest festival picnics at Oregon City View Manor and Clackamas Heights; 4) implementing two yards contests; and implementing a Seed to Supper Nutrition workshop.

2. Description of project accomplishments:

There was outstanding participation at the events including the harvest festival picnics, bulb give-away, yard contests and the Seed to Supper classes; the neighborhoods have a fresh clean appearance; and new picnic tables and a new sign were assembled and placed in the neighborhood.

3. Measures of performance (i.e. number of people served; effects of the project):

Quantitative Data

- 1) 20 families with children attended the OCVM picnic,
- 2) 15 families with children attended the Clackamas Hts, picnic,
- 3) 30 families participated in the bulb planting and yard contests,
- 4) 18 attended the Seed to Supper class

Qualitative Data

- 1) people got to know their neighbors better and worked together for a common goal,
- 2) people reported an increased sense of neighborhood pride,
- 3) Seed to Supper workshop participants learned at least one new skill.

4. List additional sponsors of the project:

1. Housing Authority of Clackamas County
2. Portland State University School of Social Work
3. The Oregon Food Bank

5. How were Metro Enhancement grant funds spent?
