Children's Programming Vacation November 21– November 25

LEGO Lab

Saturdays @11:30 am

Oregon City Public Library

We provide the LEGOs, you provide the imagination! Each week, kids of all ages build LEGO sculptures using a randomly selected challenge as inspiration. Then, we display the sculptures in the Children's Room for everyone to admire.

Art Lab

Wednesdays @2:30 pm and 3:30 pm

Oregon City Public Library

Kids and grownups, come get your hands dirty (or at least covered in glue) at Art Lab! Each week, we provide you with inspiration in the form of a famous artist or art technique. Then, you use our art supplies to create a masterpiece of your very own.

Do You Feel a Draft?

Wednesday, November 1st and November 15th @5:00 pm

Oregon City Public Library

Whether you love writing or kind of like it, you're invited to join Do You Feel a Draft. This informal writers group is free and open to anyone interested in the writing process. Share your ideas, resources, and make some new friends along the way.

Elevated Readers Book Club

Thursday, November 2nd @6:15 pm

Oregon City Public Library

Join us for a discussion of the book "The Long Way Home" by Louise Penny.

First Film Friday: Big Pharma: Market Failure

Friday, November 3rd @6:30

End of the Oregon Trail Interpretive Center

Big Pharma...Market Failure is a documentary film by Vince Mondillo, Richard Master, Wendell Potter and Henry Nevison. This eye-opening account describes the dynamics behind the escalating cost of pharmaceuticals in the U.S. and the impact of soaring healthcare costs on U.S. businesses, working families and our overall economy. It proposes a simple fix that mirrors a "best practice" utilized throughout the industrialized world.

DIY Zines: Open Studio Hours

Every First Saturday of the Month from 2-5pm

Oregon City Public Library, Conference Room

Whether you're a seasoned zinester or a newbie to the zine scene, open studio hours at the Oregon City Public Library make it easy to get work done. Have the content squared away for your latest creation but need help with the layout? Looking to make zines in the company of others who may be interested in collaborating too or just chatting? Drop in during our open workshop hours which happen the first Saturday of every month. Emily Prado, a local zinester, will be on site to lend a hand if needed. Supplies will be provided.

Nathalia Family Concert in English & Spanish

Saturday, November 4th @10am

Children's songwriter Nathalia uses a creative bilingual approach to engage families in an interactive musical performance. From themes like space exploration to cruising down the Amazon River, her infectious songs will have families singing, dancing, and even learning a little Spanish in this fun multicultural experience!

Gathering of Finches Script Reading

November 4, 2017 @1:00pm

Oregon City Public Library

Oregon City writer Judith Elliot McDonald will be holding a table reading of a new play she is developing based on the northwest...(con't)

(con't)...best-selling novel 'A Gathering of Finches' by Jane Kirkpatrick. This table reading is one step in the process of development for a new play. McDonald will explain more about the history of the play thus far. Actors from Portland and Salem will be reading the play. The public is invited to listen to the play and observe how the process of play adaptation unfolds. For more information, contact McDonald at j.elliott.text@gmail.com.

National Novel Writing Month (NaNoWriMo)-: Come Write-In!

Every Monday in November 10am-5pm

Oregon City Public Library Community Room

Every November, thousands of writers around the world congregate at Come Write In spaces to pursue their creative dreams and write the first draft of their novel. OCPL will have our community room open to writers every Monday in November. For more information about NaNoWriMo, visit <https://nanowrimo.org/>

The Environment and Modern Agriculture

Tuesday, November 14 @6PM

Oregon City Public Library Community Room

Please join us for an engaging presentation exploring how raising farmed animals and related crops affect ecosystems and our health through global warming, the depletion of natural resources, the pollution of soil, water and air, the use of pesticides, hormones and antibiotics, soil erosion, deforestation and world hunger. Participants will have a chance to discuss alternative choices that can help protect our environment.

Native Wisdom: Film Screening & Community Discussion

Friday, November 17, 2017 @3PM

Oregon City Public Library Community Room

Please join us for a screening of 2 short documentary films presented by Wisdom of the Elders, the Native American non-profit organization located in Portland, in honor of Native American Heritage Month, featuring Native (con't)..

(con't)...people from Oregon as they discuss the impact of a changing environment on the lives of Native peoples of the Northwest along with their rich cultural arts.

Traditional Native American Storytelling

November 18th @10:00am

Oregon City Public Library

Ed Edmo is a Native American with Shoshone-Bannock-Nez Perce tribal affiliations and is also an acclaimed poet, playwright, performer, and traditional storyteller. Join us as we celebrate National American Indian Heritage Month with traditional storytelling by Ed. All ages are welcome!

DIY Craftshop: Felted Wool Acorns

November 18th @1:30 pm

Oregon City Public Library

Whether you're looking for cute holiday décor or the perfect fashion accessory for Thanksgiving dinner, we've got you covered! This month at Craftshop, we're learning how to wet felt so we can make acorn ornaments and jewelry. Never felted or made jewelry before? Don't worry! We'll bring all of the supplies and walk you through the project from beginning to end.

Coffee and Coloring

Saturday, August 26th @ 10:00 am

Oregon City Public Library

Coloring isn't just for kids! It offers a slew of mental benefits. Just like meditation, coloring allows us to switch off our brains from other thoughts and focus only on the moment, helping to alleviate free-floating anxiety. Come join us for a session of coloring and coffee!
